Office Action Summary	Application No. 09/896,533	Applicant(s) BAEHR-JONES ET AL.
	Examiner Thomas H. Stevens	Art Unit 2123

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-24 have been examined.

Section I: Continued Examination

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/07/2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because they're directed by an abstract idea rather than a practical application of that idea; nor they appear to produce a tangible result nor a specific, substantial and credible disclosed utility so as to be, in and of itself useful.

For claims 1 and 9, there's no mention of what the intended use is nor how this distributed computing is significant, thus lacking transition and usefulness, while non-credible since the end result is silent. Claim 17 appears to reflect software only since a computer useable medium is unclear. Conversely, the specification discloses a CPU, i.e., a computer readable medium. If these sets of claims were to reflect such a limitation, coupled to the same concerns as stated for the remaining claims, it should render this set of claims statutory.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims appear inaccurate or incomplete since by which the relationship between the binary tree and the Cartesian grid limitations is non-binding with little significance.

Citation to Relevant Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

- Monien-B., "Simulation Binary Trees on X-Trees" ACM 1991, pg. 147-158; teaches an arbitrary binary tree with dilation 11 and optimal expansion into an X-tree.
